NINETEEN HUNDRED FIFTY-SEVEN

Christopher Dock Mennonite School
Lansdale, Pennsylvania

The

The
SENIOR CLASS
of 1957
Presents

Schul-Andenken

FOREWORD

For nearly three years Christopher Dock has invited youth to come and learn better ways of living. There is a spirit and a tradition about the school; and we, the Class of 1957, feel that we have in some measure helped to establish that spirit and tradition.

Because we find it impossible to sketch in words the multiple and true impressions of our high school, we invite you to look behind the scenes—to read between the lines. Here you will catch a glimpse of the personalities and activities we have learned to know and love.

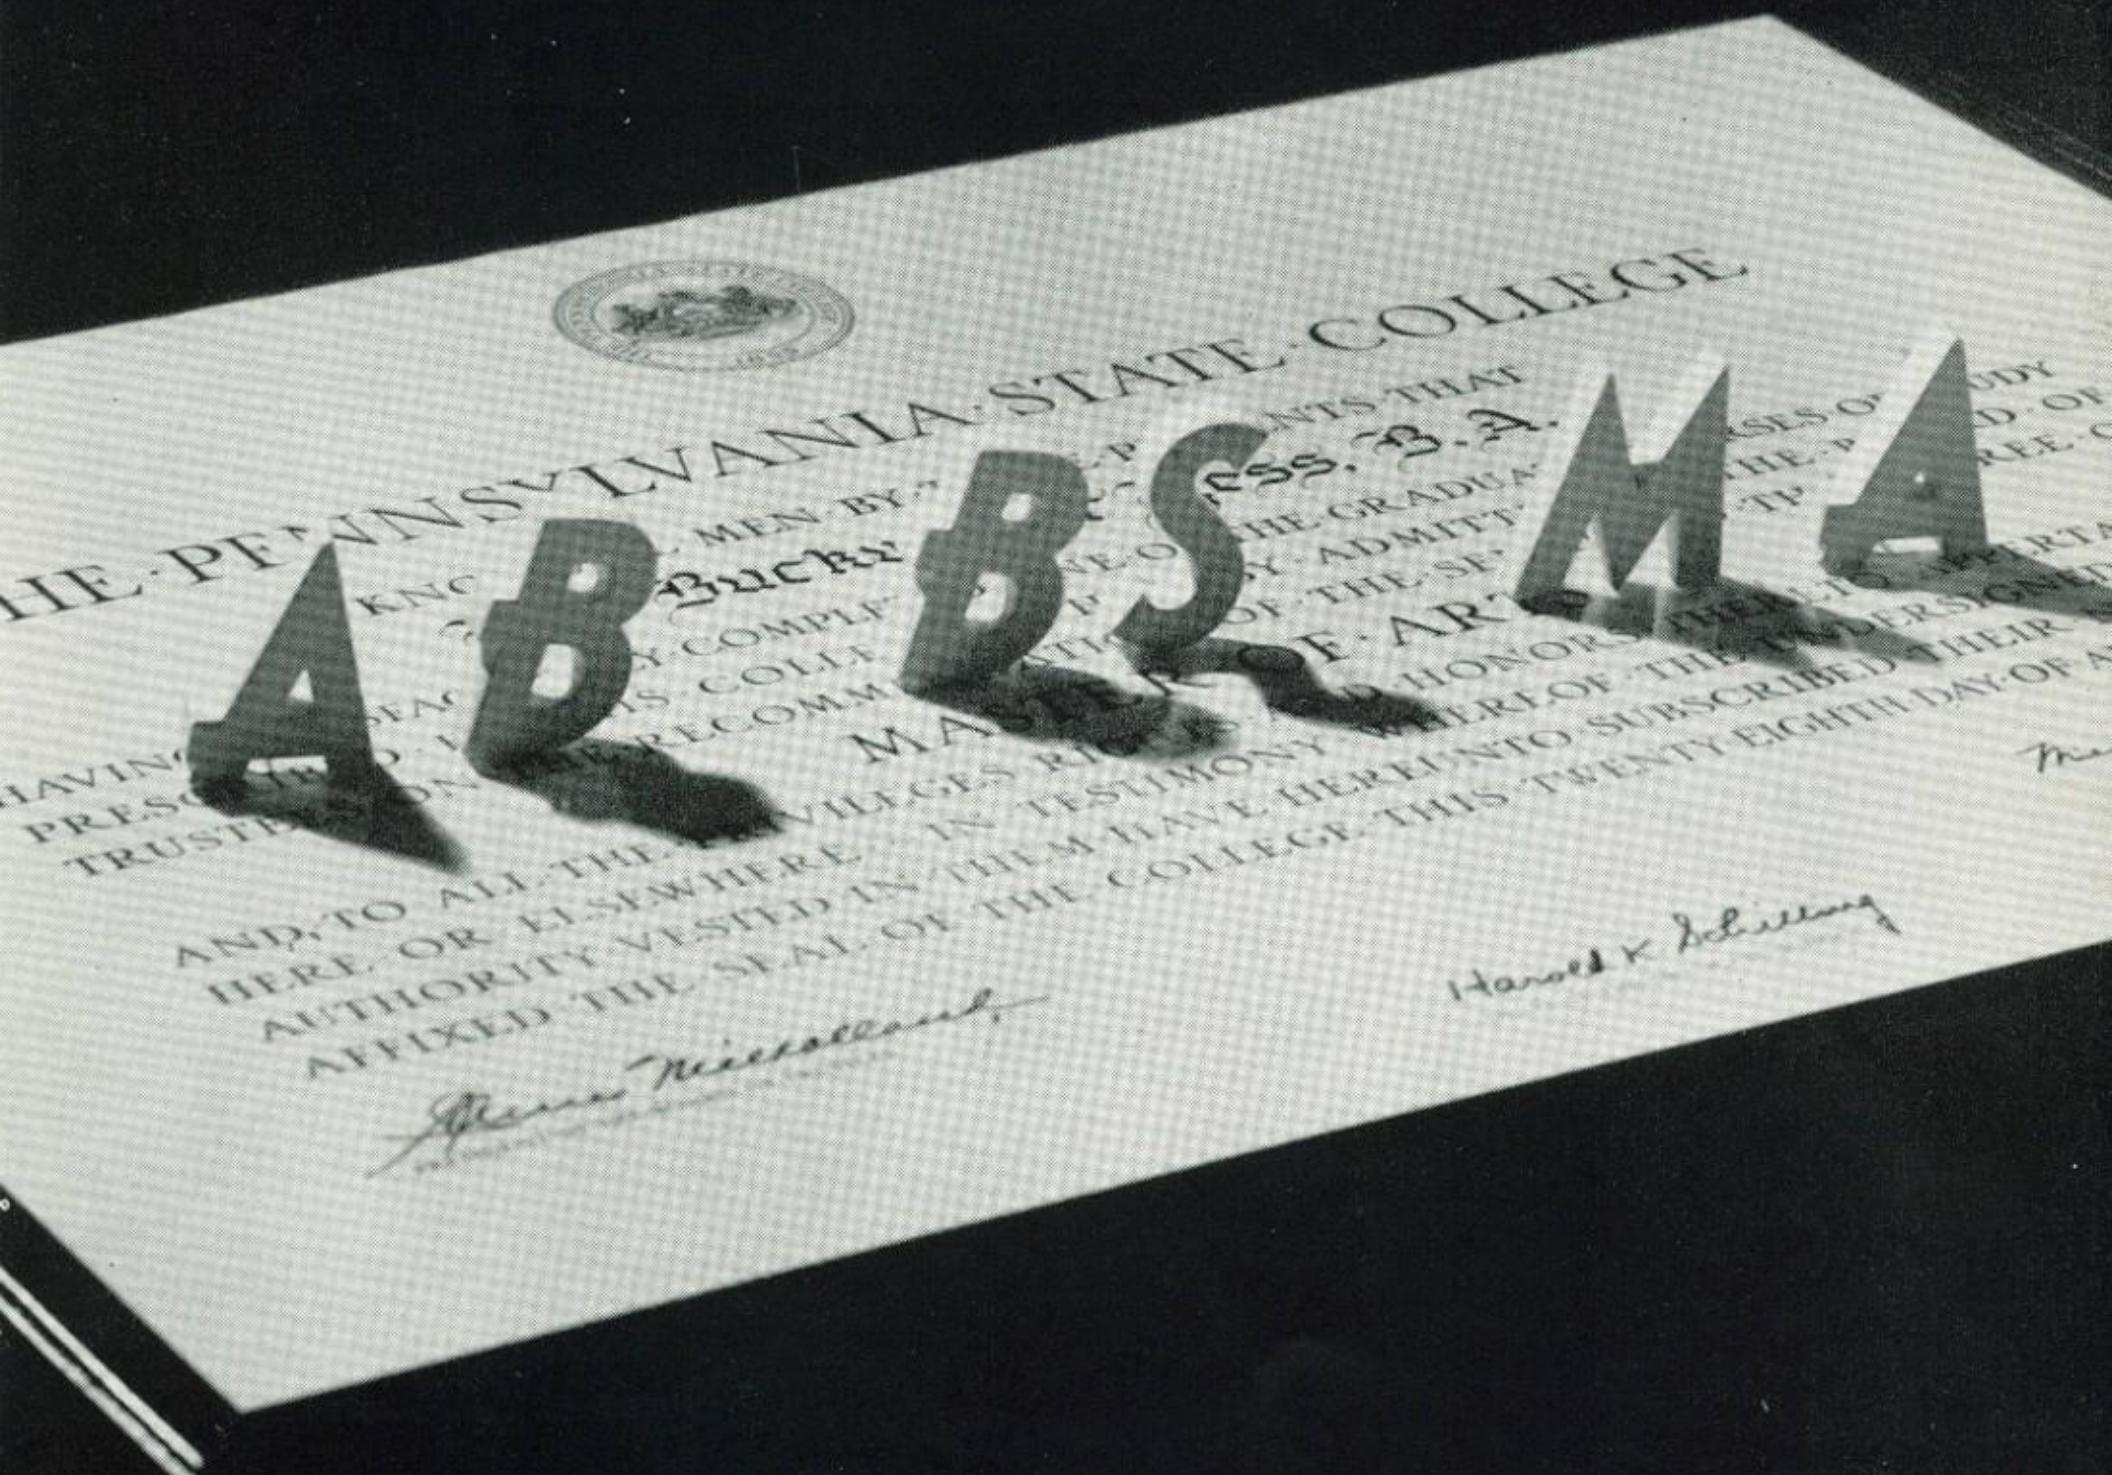

DEDICATION

With gratitude and appreciation for his untiring efforts we, the Class of 1957, dedicate this Schul-Andenken to Mr. Ben B. Hess, our class adviser and homeroom teacher through our three years at Christopher Dock.

As faculty adviser to the Dockument staff, he will be remembered as a conscientious worker; as class adviser and coach of our baseball and basketball teams, he will be remembered as a real guide and comrade. His chairmanship of all official senior "bull sessions" has been invaluable, and his informal, friendly manner has left a lasting impression on our lives.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

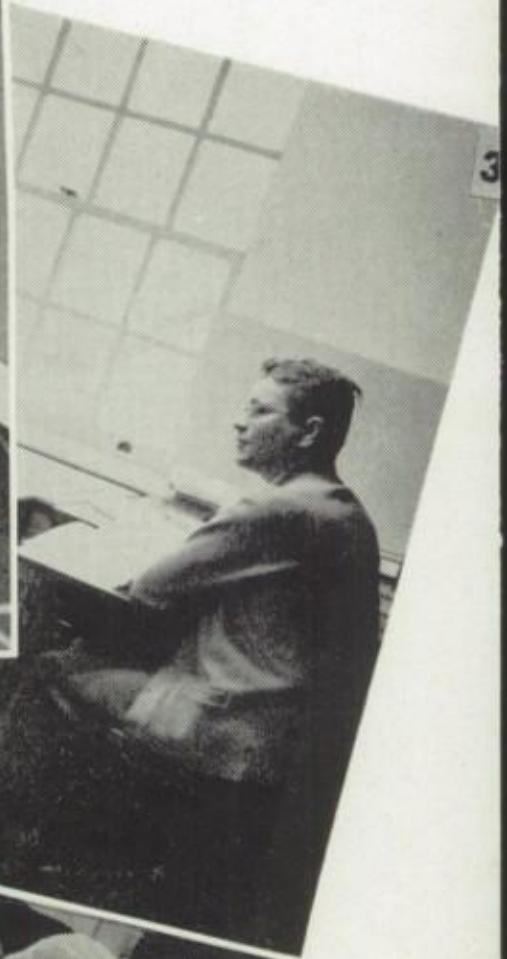

Dear Seniors,

You are not just another group of students being turned out by the mill of graduation. It is God's judgment, not mine, that each of you is worth more than the entire world. If this is an indication of the value of your life, it is quite a responsibility to handle it.

Remember that you can't. Let God. And believe Him.

SENIORS

Day after day, week after week, month after month, we have studied English, trig, history, and typing. Now we are thinking seriously of college, office positions, and I-W service. We have learned to accept responsibility, to do our own thinking, in short, to take our position as young adults.

But we aren't too much of a serious bunch, for we laugh and play and sing also. You may hear our singing in chorus and chapel and our small talk and laughter floating down the halls. And occasionally you may find one of us sitting in the principal's office when he should be in G-2 in class. But, as a whole, we are interested in our school, in our friends, and in our service to God.

Ably assisted by the staff and co-editors, Lareta Halteman and John Derstine, Editor Meyers turned out six successful issues of the Dockument.

Opinion polls, editorials, news articles — all these had to be assigned, corrected, typed, and sent to the printer to beat the deadline.

The Dockument, with a subscription list of over four hundred, reports the news of C.D.M.S. to students, parents, and interested friends.
